Of flowers and bees
Spring, flowers, bees - all the conditions are right for pollinating the huge fields of lavender, lime trees and acacias in Happy Bee, where you play bee cards and pass the others on to your neighbours. Your aim is to pollinate as many flowers as possible. Choose the bee cards you want to play carefully to have the most of them and collect flowers. But be careful: Others are also after the flowers that bring in the most points. Happy Bee is a game in which you will learn about drafting, an ingenious card distribution system. Choose the bee cards you play carefully, because you leave the rest to your neighbours. Drafting and majority game
