JUSTWILD - Survival is a question of territory HAND MANAGEMENT / STRATEGY / CALCULATION
lynx, bear, wolf or ibex: choose your animal and skilfully play cards to expand and protect your territory. In Just Wild, four endangered animal species have to share the space. Place your cards carefully to block your opponents and ensure the survival of your species. Just Wild is a simple but clever strategy game: add up the cards already on the table to cover those of your opponents, or place a card face down to expand the forest and create a new space to discover. Finally, be the first to secure your territory by skilfully placing your tiles to protect the youngest animals of your species. This card game, which mixes arithmetic and hand management mechanisms with a touch of luck, gets the brain working and is the perfect companion to teach children to count. -A perfect game to practise mental arithmetic -Includes a booklet to learn more about these 4 endangered animals
