Product Description

Become the most successful merchant! The players are influential merchants at the end of the 19th century. They produce a wide variety of consumer goods such as furniture, tiles or crystal glass and store them in suitable warehouses in the harbour until they are sold. Through the skilful use of cards and a clever choice of dice, they obtain resources that are crucial to the game. They can use these to take possession of blocks of houses, construct important buildings, employ experts or move their ship through the harbour. Whoever shows the most skill and the best foresight will come ever closer to winning the game. The player with the most prestige at the end of the game wins. - Resources and cards are laid out on the table - Resources as tiles in 3 sizes - Single-layer player rondels - Cardboard stand with cardboard feet - Full game with 4 expansions & solo mode! - Contains English cards
