Product Description

Catch the Fluffys and save time! Ever since time travel was invented, little monsters called "Fluffys" have been up to mischief. And they're really messing up the timeline! As part of the Time Travel Agency, we send out the four brave adventurers Franky, Spike, Cleo and Quall-E from different times to catch the Fluffys again. To catch them, our special team has to travel through the time portals to different eras and places to recapture the fluffy beasts. No problem so far - if there wasn't a catch: maintaining a portal costs energy and communication is limited. So we have to hurry ... Our teamwork is required! In the co-operative family game Time Trouble, you navigate four lovable characters through seven different levels with ever-changing material and exciting challenges by superimposing transparent cards on top of each other. Your aim is to catch the Fluffys that are messing up the timeline. With each level, you travel through time to master new challenges. Together you must coordinate your actions and utilise the characters' abilities to succeed - but you only have a few seconds to carry out your plans. Can you manage to work together and keep a cool head? - 2-4 players- 9+ ages- 20+ minutes
