Product Description

Our new city is developing splendidly. Buildings are shooting up and the streets are becoming busier and more and more populated. As the owners of the largest construction companies, you are part of an unusual competition. The one of you who designs the best and most prestigious street will be awarded the contract to develop the entire suburb. Play project cards, build houses, office complexes and service centres. If you are clever, you can buy up plans and place your cards on the other players' buildings. Keep a close eye on whether your neighbours are allies or opponents. Keep an eye on your budget and the roads you build will soon bring you good profits! Package contents: - 112 project cards- 4 road trains- 96 banknotes- Score cards- Instructions- For 2-4 players- Recommended for children aged 10 and over Caution! Not suitable for children under 3 years. Contains small parts that can be swallowed - choking hazard!
