Product Description

Build a ready-to-use fire station from real white bricks and decorative elements such as grass or shrubs. Use the building plans provided or use your imagination to create unique buildings. Once built, the fun is not over yet. Simply place the assembled and glued-together building in water and the bricks will come apart again - and it can be rebuilt! The set contains: real bricks, glue, decorative elements, stickers, instructions... Caution! Not suitable for children under 3 years. Contains small parts that can be swallowed - choking hazard!
