Product Description

Starfinder - Flip-Mat: Ghost Ship (DE)

You never know when you will come across a mysterious, abandoned ship while exploring space! Whether your players find an abandoned spaceship drifting through space or exploring the devastated interior of a wrecked wreck, no gamemaster wants to spend time drawing every single compartment and bulkhead. Fortunately, with the latest Starfinder Flip-Mat, you don't have to!

This range of game mats offers ready-to-use science fantasy sets for the busy game master. The double-sided map features an abandoned, abandoned freighter on one side and the dilapidated hull of a research vessel on the other, each ready to be stepped on and explored by your players.

Don't waste time sketching if you can play. With the Starfinder Flip-Mat: Ghost Ship you are always prepared when your players come across a mysterious ship! Warning! Not for children under 36 months suitable.
