Product Description

The game master's manual contains the game values for a dozen of non-player characters (NPC) that you can use for your adventures and in this box can you find them all! 110 cards allow you to use the game values in new and exciting ways at the table. Each card has a multi-colored image of the NPC in question on one side and its game values on the other. Show your players who their NPCs are facing and have the values at hand without having to leaf through books!
