Product Description

DSA Adventure - Lunar Silver Mysteries, paperback (DE), 48 pages, 2nd revised edition

A venerable sphinx has ruled RasLamasshu for centuries and cares for the wellbeing of the few human inhabitants and the city's numerous cats. On her pyramid, in the interior of which there are said to be a hundred by a hundred secrets, she looks up into the starry sky and receives enigmatic prophecies and visions, the ambiguous interpretations of which puzzles scholars.

The last prophecy of the Sphinx is about their own destiny and the lunar silver mysteries. In order to get to the bottom of these, she needs brave fighters to investigate for her.

But the heroes are not the only ones who are after the secret. A dark force stretches out its claws from out of sight to forestall the adventurers. The adventure will take the heroes from the alleys of Zorgan into the Aran provinces and undiscovered places where they can learn more about the country's past.

Who can the heroes trust? Will the prophecy of the Sphinx in all its calamity be fulfilled? And what exactly is the Lunar Silver Mysteries all about?

This is the companion adventure to the regional game aid Das Dornenreich, which introduces you to the Aranien game setting in detail.

Warning! Not suitable for children under 36 months.

The set of rules is required! As well as The Realm of Thorns.
