Product Description

Child of the Golden God - Pardona I

Long before human times, the high elves ruled Aventuria. In the hostile ice of the north they build the sky tower, a huge monument of their abilities. The existence of the residents revolves around research, art and the fight against evil in the form of the Nameless God. But when the mysterious elf Amadena appears in the tower, the elves' lives suddenly change. Amadena questions everything that the elven culture stands for. Her bold ideas soon cast a spell over the young Acuriën - and too late he realizes that Amadena's goal is nothing more than the downfall of the entire elven people. The Pardona trilogy tells the story of one of Aventuria's most famous evil characters over a period of 5,000 years, revealing that all of their deeds served a higher purpose. The series leads through the aventurian story as an epic story unfolds, making it very suitable for those new to the world of the black eye.
