Product Description

Climb a never-ending tower to face an ancient evil with this hair-raising "Epic Encounters" boss box! Compatible with fifth edition or any fantasy role-playing game. The endless staircase eventually leads to a huge ornate door. Intense evil emanates from the room beyond: a Lich Empress. An ancient creature - once a sorceress, now something else entirely. Something unnatural that clings to life through dark magic. Something that does not die. Your translucent skin reveals the atrophied musculature beneath; your brain is a shrivelled vessel for the forbidden knowledge of past civilisations. It does not die. But it is watching. And it waits.
