Product Description

Master's survival pack III - floor plans for modern times by Wolfgang Röhling
Nine different buildings, e.g. a casino of the unusual kind, a bar and a monorail station, plus several flats ranging from residential flats to luxury penthouses await their visitors. The views by Benedict Schwarz give an impression of the appearance of the buildings. And since some buildings, such as the office building, are designed according to the modular principle, anyone can continue to build them themselves.
