Product Description

Immerse yourself in the vibrant streets of Mumbai and slip into the role of a Dabba Walla. In this fascinating game, you accompany the famous Indian lunchbox carriers on their daily journey through the megacity and bring home-cooked food from the kitchens directly to the offices of hungry employees. Your task is to deliver the colourful and tastefully filled dabbas - the traditional Indian lunch boxes - on time and reliably. Strategic planning and quick action are required here! Start your day by collecting the dabbas, sorting them at central points and navigating your way through the hustle and bustle of the city to deliver them on time. Each delivered Dabba earns you valuable tips, but the journey is challenging and requires clever resource management and a good eye for efficient routes through Mumbai's ever-changing environment. With lovingly designed game materials that have been sustainably produced in Europe and contain less than 1% plastic, this game not only offers exciting entertainment, but also a piece of Indian culture and history. Whether alone or with friends and family - this game promises plenty of fun, excitement and the odd strategic challenge. Are you ready to follow in the footsteps of a Dabba Walla and become part of this unique tradition? 2 - 4 people Ages 8 and up 45 minutes 320 x 400 x 320 mm
