Product Description

Poetry for Neanderthals: Pop Culture Edition Play with film, song and series, where you speak well word - otherwise Au with stick! "A boat, very big. Au an ice mountain." What could that possibly be? The pop culture edition of the party game Poetry for Neanderthals is family-friendly word fun for film, music and series nerds from Exploding Kittens - and those who want to become one! In two teams, you have to explain all kinds of pop culture terms to each other and are only allowed to use words with one syllable. Whether it's Elvis, Jaws, Titanic or Mars Bar: If you use words with more than one syllable, the other team can (gently) hit you with the inflatable Nope! (gently). Guess the most poetic words as a team before time runs out to send your opponents back to their caves! Specification - 2+ players - 7+ age - 15+ minutes - Publisher: Exploding Kittens - Genre: Conversation game - Category: Party games - Mechanism: Association, Communication Game content - Game instructions 1 - Poetry cards 200 - Inflatable Nope!
