Product Description

Which feelings belong together? This memo game with extra-large cards invites children to talk about their feelings and to recognise and understand everyday emotional situations. The eight pairs of pictures illustrate children's joys, fears and worries with the help of Ela Smietenka's modern animal illustrations. This memo not only trains memory in a playful way, but also helps children from the age of four to understand their world of life and emotions. - Number of players 2 persons- Suitable for ages 4 and up- Playing time 15 minutes- Packaging 200 x 200 x 47 mm
