Product Description

The Fiat G.55 Centauro was one of the most important Italian fighter aircraft in the Second World War. Its advanced design and good performance made it a formidable opponent in aerial combat. The aircraft was appreciated by both Italian pilots and opponents who fought against it. The aircraft, made of 192 elements, adds a touch of Mediterranean freshness to the COBI range. The model features camouflage from the Mediterranean theatre of operations. The emblems of Italian aviation are presented with durable and indelible prints. The Fiat G.55 Centauro is an Italian fighter aircraft from the Second World War designed by Fiat. It first flew in 1942 and was considered one of Italy's best fighter planes at the time. It was powered by the German Daimler-Benz DB 605 engine, which gave it good speed and manoeuvrability. Armed with cannons and machine guns, the G.55 was characterised by high performance at high altitudes. Although its production was limited, it earned the respect of both Italian and German pilots. - 192 high quality elements, - Produced in the EU by a company with over 35 years of tradition, - Meets safety standards for children's products, - Fully compatible with other brands of clamp building blocks, - Only permanent prints - no stickers - Clear and intuitive building instructions based on drawings and symbols, - Scale 1:48 Model dimensions (L x W x H): 19.5 cm (7.7 in) x 24.5 cm (9.6 in) x 9 cm (3.5 in) Specification - Catalogue No.: COBI-5867 - Manufacturer: Cobi Factory SA - Length: 19 cm / 7.7? - Height: 9 cm / 3.5? - Wingspan: 24,5 cm / 9.6? - Scale: 1:48 - No. of parts: 192 - EAN: 5902251058678
