Product Description

Asia, the 1960s. In a world striving for economic success, four Asian economies stand out from the crowd: South Korea, Taiwan, Singapore and Hong Kong. These so-called Asian tiger economies are currently implementing policies and creating optimal investment conditions for international players to enter their economies and achieve impressive economic growth. You are an investor sponsored by the Asian Tigers and your goal is to help these markets thrive and achieve the success they crave. You build power plants, research laboratories, sponsor universities and set up factories that produce resources to serve local and - more importantly - international markets. - Number of players 1 - 4- Suitable for players aged 12 and over- Play time 120 minutes- Packaging 295 x 295 x 70 mm Caution! Not suitable for children under 12 years of age.
