Product Description

... mighty civilisations on their way into a new age ...The Peloponnese - home of the mighty and proud civilisations, the Poleis. Lead one of them through the ages, increase fame, wealth and prosperity and defy impending catastrophes. Develop your civilisation during 8 game rounds by gaining new land, constructing prestigious buildings and thus increasing the number of your inhabitants. Will you achieve the best possible balance between prestige and population?The Peloponnese card game is based on the well-known board game and uses the bidding mechanic. Some detailed rules have been streamlined. The system of disasters and the possibility of acquiring luxury goods are completely new and provide a new, great challenge. The game material is language-independent. German, English and French rules are included. Important notes Attention! Not suitable for children under 36 months.
