Product Description

Ready your phasers!"They must have been idiots who put the new ship together. The engine is good, but half the doors won't open. And who gets to see how he fixes it?"- Captain Montgomery Scott This Operative Division rules supplement provides game masters and players with a wealth of new material for Star Trek Adventures, especially for characters in the Operative Division. The Operative Division rules supplement contains: A comprehensive description of the Operative Division, covering both Security Officers and Engineers. This is supplemented by information on the Starfleet Corps of Engineers, Starfleet Intelligence, and even the mysterious Section 31. Hints for creating plot components for your missions that are tailored to Operative personnel to test the intrepidity of Security Officers and the ingenuity of Engineers. A separate chapter is dedicated to new equipment and includes rules on how to use it in Star Trek Adventures missions. An expanded list of foci and additional talents for Security Officers and Engineers, as well as new rules for creating player characters with crew ranks. Detailed descriptions and play values for numerous NPCs and supporting characters from the Operations Division, including Luther Sloan, Dr Leah Brahms and MACO soldiers. Finally, Star Trek Adventures: Red Alert provides 2W20 rules for miniature combat in the Star Trek universe, and includes a campaign of six consecutive scenarios.
