Product Description

Oh no! the crazy twisted card game A real challenge for all those who think Mau Mau is not enough! The classic game has been given a new twist: here, it's not the top card that is played, but the penultimate card! So only maximum concentration and courageous bluffing will lead to victory. Additional special actions make the game even more confusing - and therefore even more exciting. A must for the next game night! This is how it's played: + All cards are played in turn according to the familiar Mau Mau rules (play the colour or type of fruit appropriately). + The twist: it's not the top card that is "served", but the card below it. So everyone has to pay close attention to what is hidden. If you think someone has played the wrong card, you can doubt it. Important information Caution! Not suitable for children under 36 months.
