Word skills and powers of deduction are required here: the players have to work out which word they can use to pass through the green glass door - but there is a new secret rule every round! This exciting word puzzle challenge not only offers endless fun for small and large groups, but also two exciting game variants: Either you play co-operatively in a team or try to play against each other, i.e. competitively. An entertaining word puzzle game for young and old! How to play: The group draws a card, agrees on a difficulty level and decides whether they want to play co-operatively or competitively.
