Product Description

"Das Kleinhorn im Riesenwald" is a magical children's game that inspires the imagination and transports young and old into a world full of colour and fantasy. Four giants hurry through the forest to protect unicorns. The giants always move across the piles of cards in the giant forest to the colour card being played. As soon as they come across a unicorn of the right colour, they can capture and protect it. Another unicorn usually appears on the spot. If you also have the right card in your hand, you can add this animal to your own collection. Even if you don't find a unicorn from your played card in the forest, you don't go away empty-handed, as you can collect one from your fellow players. The player who collects the most little horns, no horns, peep unicorns and, of course, pig, slime and sunshine horns at the end of the game wins.
