Product Description

There are numerous cultures on Lorakis that are characterised by their connection to the animals of the world: The riders from Jogai or the beast tamers from the Twilight Forest are just two of the many peoples whose everyday lives are characterised by coexistence with animals. Animal companions are also always popular with adventurers. The hunting dog at the side of the Nyrdfinger scout, the loyal warhorse of a warrior from Zwingard or the sparrowhawk dragon of a Farukan falconer are frequent companions of the Shardbearers, who assist them in battle and hunting, provide entertainment and joy or are simply the group's mascot. Beastmasters: Animal Companions by Lorakis is dedicated to precisely this topic. It contains numerous expansions on the popular creature resource, the training of new creatures, the bond with them and the various traditions and training of beastmasters throughout Lorakis.
