Product Description

DESCRIPTION Experience the epic and spectacular battle between the good and dark sides of Star Wars up close with the ball track system from GraviTrax. Action-packed space duels are brought to life with the GraviTrax Star Wars Deathstar action set. It allows you to discover the legendary encounter between the Empire and the Rebels from Star Wars. With elements and components from GraviTrax in the exclusive Star Wars design, you can create your own exciting GraviTrax tracks. Can be played with alone. GraviTrax is a flexibly expandable, interactive marble run system for children aged 8 and over: With GraviTrax, children, teenagers and adults don't just build simple marble runs. They create unique marble run worlds. By freely designing the marble runs and exploring the rolling behaviour of the balls, children's understanding of science is sharpened and gravity can be experienced at first hand. The GraviTrax universe includes three exciting lines - CORE, PRO and POWER. All GraviTrax lines and products can be freely combined with each other. The GraviTrax universe can be expanded infinitely with countless extensions with classic building elements or bricks that enable special action and tricks. So everyone can tinker, try things out and build beyond themselves. Important information Caution!
