Product Description

Blaze loves to freeze things with his magic wand, Orion likes to sneak around unseen, and Angel is so charming that every creature in Starport wants to make friends with her. What kind of character will you be? Starport is aimed at children aged 5 to 12, who take on the role of characters they have created themselves and experience exciting adventures with them under the guidance of their game master. It is a game full of fantasy that places particular emphasis on creative, peaceful conflict and problem solving as well as teaching communication skills. In addition to all the important information for players and game leaders, this book also contains three ready-made adventures that can be played straight away.
