Product Description

Love, swords and adventure. Charming sword-lords fight the Lady of Chains when her forces march south from the icy north. They fly through space on rockets to protect diplomats who end conflicts that have been smouldering for generations. Even when they cross swords, they want to make peace with their opponent-and sometimes forge an even deeper connection than expected. A sword duel can end in a make-out session, a witch gets her power by helping others find love, and you can build an entire campaign around travelling matchmakers flying from star system to star system. Charming Sword Lives is a role-playing game for telling queer stories with friends. If you like lesbian characters who adore their secret crush and find their happy ending after ups and downs, you've come to the right place. In this book you'll find: Flirting, swordplay and witty remarks in a system that emphasises both narrative drama and safety at the gaming table. An innovative approach from the Powered by the Apocalypse series of games. Nine character archetypes, each focusing on a specific emotional conflict. Support for managing the game, such as creating engaging enemies, how to set the right tone, pace and structure the game. Tools to create your own game worlds and stories, as well as a dozen pre-made possibilities, such as Neon City 2099 (cyberpunk), Steamfunk poets fighting the authorities as Les Violettes Dangereuses, laser swords and intrigue in space, and more. Worksheets for world-building in custom scenarios, as well as hooks to play a starter scenario: The Best Day of Their Lives, The Constellation Festival, Gal-Paladins, and Swordlords of the Three Houses. Various rules for highlighting different identities, emotional connections, and game world elements. Strategies for adapting any setting where swords are crossed and hearts beat faster for Charming Swordlords.
