Product Description

Overwhelmed by the goblin hordes, the remnants of the five races are forced to flee their fertile Hiddenlands and reestablish their civilisations in the newly discovered lands of Pandoria. But as they stake their claims and seek to bring new prosperity to their people, rivalries that were once their downfall flare up once more. Your people work with your opponents to help Pandoria flourish once more. But even now, only the people who manage to gather the most resources, erect buildings and monuments, unleash the most powerful spells and harness the magic of this mysterious place can dominate the land. Pandoria Merchants is a stand-alone game set in the world of Pandoria. It transfers the popular board game into a "roll and write" game. In addition to the regular game, it also offers a family version for an easy introduction and, for the first time, a solo version in which you compete with the trolls. Important notes Attention! Not suitable for children under 36 months.
