Product Description

Mirakulus Kingdom Rush - Rift in Time: Vez'nan Heroes - Board Game (DE extension)

A new hero appears in the time chart! Vez'nan must stand against the terrible Moloch. A young Vez'nan appears from a portal of the time mage in a world inhabited by demons. He realizes that he is in a future timeline, but before he can collect his seven senses, he is already attacked by the horned demon Moloch!

You must support Vez'nan even if you have reservations about him. He must not find out that he is cheating on his own kingdom, this is the only way he can later become an important ally in the fight against the time mage. We cannot risk having two powerful wizards against us at once!

In Kingdom Rush, 1-4 brave adventurers ages 12 and up work together to withstand the relentless onslaught of the mysterious time mage! Command your heroes, build towers and recruit warriors to defend the kingdom against the ever-advancing horde. The towers, which give the tower defense genre its name, are in the center of attention: They allow you to place damage tokens - an innovative way of displaying damage! - and you have to watch out for the right time to upgrade them - this is the only way to stop the waves of opponents that are becoming more and more powerful ... The well-being of the kingdom is in your hands!

Warning!The basic game is required to play!

Warning!Not suitable for children under 36 months!
