Product Description

Does the massive land stand out with its mountains and raging volcanoes, or does the sea dominate with its coral reefs and raging whirlpools? Land and sea meet right before your eyes! Does the massive land stand out with its mountains and raging volcanoes? Or does the sea dominate with its coral reefs and raging whirlpools? Do ships dominate the trade routes or is it rather the caravans? All this will only become clear once you can see the map in its full splendour! Land & Sea is a tactical placement game by Jon-Paul Jaques for 2, 3 or 4 players, in which you gradually assemble a landscape of land and sea areas from double-sided tiles. - for 2-4 players - ages 14+
