Product Description

One thousand years later...A great battle is waiting to be decided. Five Cosms vie for the secrets of a centuries-old battle between two alien races. This contest reveals the first cracks in the previously solid alliances between the High Lords, the invaders of Earth. The shock troops of the Nile hunt the cyber priests, while they in turn are hunted by the wolves of Uthorion. Vikings trained by Tharkoldu fight Storm Knights, while the Storm Knights try to save cities from mercenaries and their undead allies. All of this leads to Baroness Nochnaya, a character who uses the energy of possibility to bend reality in ways never before seen on Central Earth. In this book you will find: - A massive five-act adventure featuring clashes between Aysle, Central Earth, the Cyberpontificate, the Nile Empire and Tharkold. - Battles with more than a dozen new enemies and characters suitable for any gamemaster's ongoing campaign. - A look at a new, never-before-seen cosm. - Razor's edge diplomacy culminating in a grand ball to assassinate a villain or the Storm Knights.
