Product Description

Wherever there are merchants, traders or simply people with gold and inadequate security, bandits are not far away. And there are few who are more ruthless and deadly than the Villon twins: skilled swordsmen, charismatic leaders and vicious killers. Someone has to put a stop to them and their camp of thieving villains. This box contains everything you need to run a brutal bandit encounter, including 18 stunning pre-assembled miniatures! The Bandit Twins camp is ready to play as part of a new or existing role-playing campaign. Many brave warriors have tried to overthrow the Villon twins. None have succeeded. Will you be the first? Danger, discovery and adventure await! Designed for the 5th edition of the world's favourite role-playing game, this set gives every game master the tools to create a cinematic experience that will challenge and excite their players.
