Product Description

Rincala (small) by Dieter Stein. The name Rincala says a lot about this wonderful game by Dieter Stein. The name contains Mancala and Ring. However, the author has turned the familiar hollows into stacks. These stacks are distributed to the other tiles in a circle on each turn. If two tiles of the same colour are on top of each other after distribution, the player receives the top one. The aim is, of course, to get as many of the tiles as possible. There are a few additional rules for distributing the stacks and for counting the points at the end. The result is another quickly explained game for all ages, for which a little thought is useful. Caution! Not suitable for children under the age of three. Small parts can be swallowed. For 2-3 players aged 6 and over. Duration approx. 10 - 15 minutes. Game board made of solid beech, 14 x 14 cm, oiled. Wooden game pieces, varnished, in 4 colours.
