Product Description

Disciby Sascha SchaufBut not through the middle!Two players are at the start, each trying to get their discs (Disci) into the opposite corner as quickly as possible. However, the large centre field must not be entered. The squares marked with an X must also be left again in the next round, if necessary back towards the starting squares. Players have 2 moves per round, which must be used. You can move and jump with your own pieces. As in Halma, chain jumps are ideal. Blocking your opponent's target squares does not give you an advantage, but rather victory for your opponent. Who is the fastest?Caution! Not suitable for children under the age of three. Small parts can be swallowed.Features:- For 2 players aged 8 and over- Duration: 10 - 15 minutes- Game board: 20 x 20 cm, made from local solid beech, treated with high-quality natural resin oil - Wooden game pieces in 2 colours
