Product Description

KICK-IT Kick-it... Football magic in the tightest of spaces. by Frank Stark A game of long crosses, ingenious passes and tactical moves. Who will score their third goal first and win the match. Kick-it is a tactical football game that challenges the head and not the legs. The team in possession of the ball has 2 movement points at its disposal, while the opposing team without the ball has 3 movement points. The ball can be taken away at any time by jumping over the opposing player. At the end of the move, the ball is passed over any number of your own players - preferably directly into the goal, of course. When moving your own player pieces, you must always keep an eye on the entire playing field. Caution! Not suitable for children under the age of three. Small parts can be swallowed. for 2 players aged 8 and over Solid beech board, oiled, 25 x 18.5 cm 2 goals, 11 wooden playing pieces, varnished (1 ball, 2 x 4 players, 1 goalkeeper per team)
