Product Description

Description Semiramis Playful garden design with sophistication by Oliver Schaudt As the player, you find yourself in the garden of the mythical Queen Semiramis. All the plants are mixed up and you have the task of arranging them so that neither plants of the same shape nor the same colour are next to each other. There is only one free space - and this should be in the centre once you have solved the task. The different starting positions are shown on the front of the 24 cards. The first tasks can be solved in a relatively short time, but then it gets more and more difficult. Semiramis is the second game by Oliver Schaudt in our publishing house. While the large tiles in Sia Sola only change sides, in Semiramis you have to pay attention to both the shape and the colour of the different tiles. A very high level of brain teasers - For solitaire players aged 8 and over Caution! Not suitable for children under the age of three. Small parts can be swallowed. Semiramis Game board made of solid beech, oiled 14.5 x 14.5 cm Wooden game pieces, lacquered in 3 colours Set of cards with 24 tasks
