

Item no.: 395709

DSA2 - The Heroes and Magic of the Black Eye

from 43,24 EUR

Item no.: 395709
shipping weight: 0.20 kg Manufacturer: Ulisses Spiele

Product Description

Your perfect introduction to the world of the Black Eye! This box represents a piece of role-playing history and contains everything you need for a perfect introduction to the second edition of the Black Eye. You will learn how to create a character for your hero and what his strengths, weaknesses and special talents are. All rules are organised in such a way that you can easily get started and quickly develop into an advanced role-player. All the rules are organised in such a way that you can easily get started and quickly develop into an advanced role-player. A complete short adventure is included in the box so that your party can start playing straight away. In addition, this box contains everything you need to know about magical powers and their wielders. You will learn how rogue magic differs from the power of the druids and that there are three elven tribes with a variety of different spells. You will learn about the magical library and the guild system of classical school magic. You can experience how your timid sorcerer's apprentice becomes one of the most powerful grandmasters of the white, grey or black arts over the course of many game evenings. The Heroes and Magic of the Black Eye awaits you and with it a journey into the past of the great German role-playing game, which to this day offers hundreds of thousands of players a fantastic home! Edition: DSA2 Number of pages: 200 pages

Specifications

Scan this QR code to view the product
All details, up-to-date
prices and availability

