Product Description

Creagami is a kit for making modular origami. This centuries-old Japanese art of folding sheets of paper into colourful sculptures stimulates the development of creativity and is often used for relaxation. The repetitive folding of the individual cards is excellent training for the development of concentration and fine motor skills. The many colourful and creative sculptures that can be made are a perfect decoration for any corner of the house. Contents- The kit contains different coloured cards, each with 24 pre-cut cards and folding instructions that you can use to make the modules required to create your 3D sculpture
