Product Description

Creagami is a kit for making modular origami. This centuries-old Japanese art, in which sheets of paper are folded to create colourful sculptures, promotes the development of creativity and is often used for relaxation. The repetitive folding of the individual cards is excellent training for the development of concentration and fine motor skills. The numerous sculptures you can build are colourful and creative and make a perfect piece of furniture for any corner of the house. Contents- The set contains different coloured cards, each with 24 pre-cut cards and folding instructions to create the building blocks for your 3D sculpture
