Product Description

Creagami is a kit for making modular origami. This centuries-old Japanese art of folding sheets of paper into colourful sculptures stimulates the development of creativity and is often used for relaxation. The repetitive folding of the individual cards is excellent training for the development of concentration and fine motor skills. The numerous colourful and creative sculptures you can build are a perfect decoration for any corner of the house. Contents- The set contains cards in different colours, each with 24 pre-cut cards and folding instructions to help you make the modules you need for your 3D sculpture
