Product Description

Creagami is a kit for creating modular origami. This centuries-old Japanese art, in which sheets of paper are folded into colourful sculptures, stimulates the development of creativity and is often used to relax. The repetitive folding of individual cards is excellent training for developing concentration and fine motor skills. The numerous colourful and creative sculptures that can be built are perfect furnishings for any corner of the home. Contents- The kit contains cards in different colours, each with 24 pre-cut cards and folding instructions to help you create the modules needed to build your 3D sculpture
