Product Description

From the depths of the sea rises an ancient power, older than mankind itself. Godzilla, the gigantic creature known as the king of monsters, is more than just an animal - he is a living force of nature. His enormous appearance combines the irrepressible power of the earth and the wrath of nature. Its thunderous roar causes mountains to tremble and its radioactive breath brings entire cities to a standstill. Godzilla is back. But has he come to save - or to destroy? The fate of the world hangs by a thread as the mighty Titan makes his relentless moves. Can anyone stop him in his tracks, or will his sheer presence change everything? In the figure expansion Cthulhu Death May Die - Godzilla, he joins the fight against the Great Old Ones, but the investigators must also be careful not to get caught between the fronts of a monster battle. Contains German and English cards and is compatible with both language versions of the base game. This expansion can be combined with all products in the Cthulhu: Death May Die series.
