Product Description

In the centre of Europe, a vast empire stretches along the Danube, consisting of two monarchies - the Austrian and the Hungarian. Since 1848, Franz-Joseph I has ruled the multi-ethnic state of Austria-Hungary under the title of Emperor, and most Europeans refer to him as the last monarch of the old school. Austria-Hungary is a country of unique diversity - and full of opportunities for exciting adventures. Austria-Hungary - first and foremost the capital Vienna, full of culture, joie de vivre and charm, but also other famous cities such as the picturesque bridge city of Budapest and Golden Prague. Austria-Hungary - the seaports of Fiume and Trieste, Carinthia, Bohemia, Moravia, Bosnia-Herzegovina... even Liechtenstein. Austria-Hungary - as early as 1815, far-reaching impulses for the whole of Europe emanated from there, where the "Congress dances", a unique lifestyle is formed, the coffee house culture and the Viennese operetta emerge... And yet: Austria-Hungary is also a shadow of its former self, already shrouded in the shadows of transience and entangled in a desperate struggle against external and internal enemies. This 268-page book gives players and game masters a comprehensive overview of the Danube Monarchy: its history is covered as well as the imperial territories and important cities. There is also information on society, political structures, art and culture, food and drink, traffic and transport, industry and business, education... all aspects of the country are covered here. Thanks to integrated excerpts from contemporary texts, an atmospherically dense overview of the countries along the Danube is created. Over 200 pictures, drawings, illustrations, maps and plans as well as a colour poster map printed on both sides with a map of the Dual Monarchy and a city map of Vienna allow you to immerse yourself in the glorious world of Austria-Hungary in the best possible way.
