Product Description

With Speedpaint Metallics, painting real metallic metal has never been faster! The first ever metallic one-coat paint solution was developed by the creative minds at Army Painter Test Studios to provide easy one-coat coverage and a smooth, reflective finish while adding subtle but realistic shading to the miniature. The coverage you can achieve with Speedpaint Metallics is truly impressive! Simply apply the paint to your miniature and watch as the fine metallic flakes instantly adhere to the surface, while the darker pigments shade the recesses and provide instant contrast. With speed, ease of application and vibrant colours, this versatile paint range will undoubtedly help you spend more time playing.
