Product Description

Thanks to the ticking and glowing bomb, "Tick Tack Bumm Color Flash" also guarantees high tension and thrills! "Tick Tack Bumm Color Flash" is also based on the series' basic principle of finding matching words in a flash to pass on the bomb. However, the thrill is greatly increased: During each round, the bomb changes colour and the terms searched for in a category must always be guessed using the matching coloured cards. "Hot drink", "Country in Europe" or "Colour" don't sound like difficult tasks. But it's no easy task when the bomb lights up red, green, blue or yellow at random, only ticks for between ten and sixty seconds and can take on a new colour - and therefore a new category - each time it is passed on. Keeping a cool head and finding the right answers is a real challenge! Details- Age: from 12 years- Persons: from 3- Duration: approx. 30 minutes- Product dimensions: 262x262x82 mm
