Product Description

The hit for 2 players and teams! You and your partner are on a secret mission in a big city. Your objective: Make contact with 15 agents, but avoid the enemy assassins. You know the agents that your partner can contact safely. Your partner knows the agents you can contact safely. By giving each other one-word clues that match several words on the game board, you try to find all the agents before the time runs out. The game is stand-alone, so you don't need another copy of Codenames. If you want, you can also use the word or picture cards from the other games for Codenames Duet. Codenames Duet is not only great fun as a game for two players, but also in teams!
