Product Description

The Unimog in fire brigade look! The remote-controlled Unimog U 300 Fire Brigade from CARSON is more off-road capable than a comparable truck, even in year-round use, thanks to its powerful electric motor and grippy studded tyres. The lithium-ion battery ensures a long driving time of 60 minutes. With the 2.4 GHz console transmitter, you can control the sensitive driving function via the electronic driving controller as well as the horn. The accessories necessary for immediate operation of the beginner-friendly RC vehicle, including USB charger and manual, are included. Buy - Charge - Drive!
