Product Description

Fading Suns - Universe, hardcover, 120 pages (DE edition).

A passion play in the distant future. It is the sixth millennium. Humanity has spread across the stars and established a republic of advanced technology and universal emancipation - and then gambled it away, fought for it and lost it. As the light of the stars slowly began to fade, a new Dark Age descended upon the Inner Worlds. Then Emperor Alexius rose to power from the ashes of war and destruction, ushering in a new era of hope. Now he calls for brave knights, wise priests and resourceful guild traders to carry his peace to all worlds known and unknown.

This universe volume presents the setting of Fading Suns: its history, society and astro-geography. Here you will meet aristocrats, priests, guild members, aliens, psionics, cyborgs and much more.
