Product Description

The Outrider Knights have been driven mad by Sulyvahn's black eyes. They fight like cornered beasts, fierce and relentless. Winged Knights are lumbering in comparison, but one blow with their axe can shatter any foe.

Bring your next roleplaying session to life - or death - with the Dread Knights of Renown Miniatures Box, created for DARK SOULS™: The Roleplaying Game.

In this box is everything you need to add a raging Boreal Outrider Knight and a giant Winged Knight to your campaigns, including 2 highly detailed minis and 2 stat cards. All miniatures in this range are 5e compatible and can be added to any roleplaying campaign straight out of the box.

Dare you challenge the Dread Knights of Renown?
