Product Description

Do your heroes want to steal a rare alchemical from the laboratory of a cunning black magician? Do they storm a sinister summoning ritual at the last moment or sneak through a mage academy at night to put a stop to a traitor? You can now make all of this even more captivating and dynamic with this game board set! You can use your game markers or miniatures to recreate the positions of the heroes and non-player characters to visualise battles and other scenes. The authentic parchment look makes the gaming experience even more immersive. In this set you will find game boards for five different environments from the world of guild magic.
