Product Description

The game aid Palaces of Splendour introduces you to the luxurious Villa Karinor and the legendary Lunar Palace of Arkos Shah in detail. Legendary celebrations are held here and there is hardly an Aventurian who has not felt the desire to spend time in one of the two residences. In addition to the description, both locations are also brought to life with a map. The game aid also contains chance tables and several scene vignettes that can be used to create your own adventures. A two-part map of Al'Anfa, the Plague of the South, is also included. The size of the maps corresponds to DIN A3.
